Attractions: -Hua Hin Beach

The peaceful five kilometers long moonrise beach is ideal for romantic walk or jock jogging on the beach

-His Majesty the King's Klai Kang Won

"Klai Kang Won", meaning 'far from worries', was designed with a European architectural feel and was built in the late 1920s by King Rama VII. It is still used by the present monarch.

-Marukhathaiyawan Palace

This beachside palace was formerly used as a royal summer residence by King Rama VI, designed by an Italian architect and built of golden teak.

-Khao Takieb

Located at the southern end of Hua Hin Beach, the temple-topped hill of Khao Takieb is well worth climbing for its scattering of Buddhist shrines and the panoramic views.

-Sam Roi Yod National Park

This is the first national park by the sea, literally translated as 'three hundred peaks', covering more than 24,500 acres. Marshlands support a large variety of waterfowl species and the limestone masses are home to three popular caves: Phraya Nakhon, Kaeo and Sai. Phraya Nakhon Cave contains a pavilion, built in 1890 by King Rama V.

-Pa-La-U Waterfall

This beautiful, 15-tier waterfall is in the middle of rich and fertile virgin forest, located about 60 kilometres west of Hua Hin town centre.

-Kaeng Krachan National Park

Thailand's largest national park is located approximate 60 kilometres north-west of Hua Hin. The park extends towards the Burmese border to the west, is characterised by forested hills and mountains and waterways, and has as a major focal point the Kaeng Krachan Dam, a 58-metre-high and 760-metre-long structure that dominates a scenic reservoir.

-Royal Hua Hin Golf Course

The first golf course in Thailand, built in 1924, and set among the rolling coastal hills. A notable hole is the 14th, with an exotic glimpse of a Buddhist temple halfway up a densely wooded slope.

-Hua Hin Night Market

Hua Hin Night Market is popular among visitors and locals for street food, souvenirs, clothing and general goods.

-Golfers' Paradise

Hua Hin has currently six world-class golf courses, which are all within 15 to 30 minutes' drive from Let's Sea.

-Springfield Royal Country Club

-Palm Hills Golf Club

-Majestic Creek Country Club

-Imperial Lake View Golf Club

-Royal Hua Hin Golf Course

-Milford Golf Club

-Black Mountain

-Banyan Golf Club

Weather:

Hua Hin is an all-year destination with a tropical climate... comfort from the ocean breeze. There are three seasons:

-Hot: March – May

-Green & Wet: June – October

-Cool & Dry: November – February

(In the cool season the temperature can fall to 15 degree Celsius at night)
